

Woodstock: 50 Years Later

August 15-18, 1969

"An Aquarian Exposition: 3 Days of Peace & Music"

Woodstock 50 \(https://www.woodstock.com/\) - CANCELED, ALAS

Woodstock History - Bethel Woods Center for the Arts \(https://www.bethelwoodscenter.org/the-museum/the-sixties\)

Woodstock - Wikipedia \(https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Woodstock\)

At the Patchogue-Medford Library:

Road to Woodstock ("From the man behind the legendary festival") - 781.6607 LAN

Woodstock: An Encyclopedia of the Music and Art Fair - 781.6607 PER

Woodstock: Three Days That Rocked The World - Q 781.6607 WOO

Woodstock: 3 Days of Peace and Music (1970 documentary) - DVD 781.66 WOO

Some local headlines:

"The Show May Go On." Newsday. July 17, 1969. Page 36A.

"Same Name, New Spot For Woodstock Festival." Newsday. July 23, 1969. Page 56A.

"200,000 Turn Up To Turn On." Newsday. August 16, 1969. Page 1.

"Rock Fans Are Homeward Bound." Newsday. August 18, 1969. Page 2.

"Festival May Be Over But Melody Lingers On." Newsday. August 19, 1969. Page 28.

"Festival Has Pitch, but No Key to Town." Newsday. September 18, 1969. Page 9. (A proposed local "copycat" festival, alas opposed by Southampton Town.)

"Health Dept. Probes Aug. 15 Weekend At Woodstock Festival". Northport Journal.
September 18, 1969. Page 6.

"But Why All The Drugs?" [editorial]. The Babylon Beacon. September 11, 1969. Page 10.

"Twelve Youths Arrested For Narcotics Pushing." The Long Island Advance. August 28, 1969. Page 8. (Includes the story of one young man from Southampton who had just returned from the Festival, only to be arrested for selling marijuana.)

"Woodstock Not Blissful Trip For Some." Newsday. October 13, 1969. Page 9A.